About Charles:

Prison can be a lonely place and I'd love to have someone to talk to during this journey. I want to get to know you and develop a real friendship.

I am tall with an athletic build. I enjoy working out and exercising; it helps me to relax afterwards. I am a big NASCAR fan.

Reading is a great escape in here, as you can imagine. I think my favorite author would be Tom Clancy. Another favorite thing of mine to do is to watch a good movie. There is little better than relaxing on my bunk as an enthralling story unfolds on my screen. Finally, music is a wonderful pleasure. No matter what mood I'm in, there's something that will fit it and make me feel better.

I'm a native of Baltimore but I also lived in New Orleans for 15 years. I was a cross-country truck driver for a number of years, giving me the opportunity to see a lot of the United States.

I am an educated man with two years at LSU where I was working towards becoming a veterinarian. I am financially stable and eager to share myself with someone special.

I can't wait to meet you!
