

Jose Armento #338665

About Jose:

Hello, my name is Jose, but my friends and family call me Pep. I am on here looking for a long-term friendship from someone who is real and loyal because my release date is still a ways down the road. All I have to offer is a shoulder to lean on (figuratively), an ear to listen, advice to be given if asked for, and most importantly, my time. Time is the most expensive luxury in the world because it is something we spend and never get back. I am spending my time away from home, renovating my mind, physique, and way of thinking. I have learned to value my time, life, and the little things in this world.

I am open to the thought of starting a serious relationship after building a solid foundation and friendship. However, I'm focused on finding someone who can offer stable companionship. That being said, I am not trying to waste anyone's time, nor my own, as I've already given enough of it away due to my mistakes.

Thank you for taking the time to check out my account. If you choose to correspond with me, feel free to write or email me through the Securus App or www.securustech.net. Hope to hear from you soon.
