

Steven Kellmann #R05559

About Steven:

Trust your gut. You clicked my profile because some unseen force led you here. Let's explore this opportunity together. For a decade, I felt undeserving of friendship. Now, when the ugly head of depression tries to pop in, I strengthen my resolve. That's who I am, a fighter. These days I fight for justice and equality; you can call me a Humanist. I know we all have the ability to improve ourselves and our circumstances. I believe we must maximize the resources at our disposal to make the world better than when we arrived.

Ever wonder if we'll come back? If we do, I would hate to have to clean up old messes. Therefore, I avoid making them now and happily attend to whatever issues I presently have. I dislike avoidance, dishonesty, and games. I want your friendship. I want you to be yourself so we can allow each other to evolve on this journey. We will bring out the best versions of ourselves and utilize that to help others around us. I love Love. I love altruism. I have finally lowered my guard and decided to be vulnerable and let others in.

Friendship should be fun. If you feel likewise, anyone from anywhere should write. I'm serious/funny, conservative/racy, experienced/earnest, loving, loyal, and ready to be friends in this life and the next. Did Fate put you here? You better believe it!
