Jacob Boyd is 26 years old and incarcerated in Texas, USA

Hey, I am Jake. You ever heard this "A journey of 1000 miles begins with a single step" It sounds simple, but then sometimes we step in the wrong direction. I was born and raised in Texas, and I grew up hunting fishing, and playing sports. Then I turned 17. My journey must've been too easy, so I decided to learn life the hard way sometimes we just have to right?

Even though I took a little detour, I didn't let that keep me down. I found positive things to do: read, listen to music, and work out, and now I'm even in college, finishing my bachelor of arts degree. Sometimes this place is wild though, can you imagine a middle school full of adult men who never grew up? It's better than watching TV!

The only thing that still gets to me sometimes is the loneliness. I heard about a video that went viral: A sign that said, "Prison doesn't kill people does." This journey we call life ain't no fun when we're traveling alone, so I'd like to meet new people. I'm easygoing, a good listener, and love making people laugh. There are conversations where you can just be yourself and laugh that feels good you know?

Thank you for taking the time to read about me. I look forward to talking to you and hearing how your journeys have been so far.
