

Andre Combs #F51982

About Andre:

Hey, my name is Andre. I'm a 35-year-old male from the San Francisco Bay Area. My young adolescent life was surrounded by tragedy and misfortune. I contribute a lot of my ill fate to poor decision-making and even poorer circumstances. I do not in the least bit want to express a victim's mentality although I am keenly aware of the social economic reasonings that afflict a lot of our youth in this country today, predominately those of color. I have learned from my experience greatly and although prison was the worst place for a child to grow up.

I am fortunate enough today to be a survivor. I regret all the mistakes made in my life and I realize for me to truly move forward I must forgive myself and allow myself to meet and engage with you fascinating people. I hope we can all talk about substantial issues that afflict our society and share the warmth of friendship. Maybe we can connect through messaging via my email carrier listed below or even video chat. I'm not looking for anything too particular other than an open friendship, but I am always open to whatever adventure life has in store.

Thank you for reaching out to me and God bless:)
