

Ronald Renaud #W114996

About Ronald:

Hey, what's going on? My name is Ron, and I'm doing as well as can be expected considering the circumstances. I always try to remind myself that, no matter how bad things may seem at the time, they could always be worse. I consistently keep that mentality upfront and make the best of whatever situation I may be in at the time. I'm from Cape Cod, MA, and consider myself very easy-going and open-minded.

If you decide to get to know me, you will come to see that I value honesty probably above anything else. I keep it real at all times, probably to my own detriment, but wouldn't have it any other way and would appreciate the same in return. I have a thirst to learn and experience new things. I'm an avid reader and also a huge sports fan. I'm very active; I've played numerous different sports my whole life and love to work out.

I'm looking for that special someone I can vibe with, that person who's the first thing on my mind when I wake up in the morning and the last thing I think about when I'm in bed falling asleep. Who knows, that person may be you, but you'll never know unless you decide to take that leap of faith.

So if I sparked your interest, get at me. Like they say, you can meet the best people in the strangest places. Please include a photo.
