

Anthony Boccolucci #350938

About Anthony:

So here's the good news. One, although I made some bad choices that resulted in a pretty radical change of address, that's behind me. Two, I now know that I do look good in orange and will be sure to incorporate that upon my release. Three, I have learned very valuable lessons like - how to deal with people when you (literally) can't get away from them, how to coordinate one color with that same color, and how to trick out my ride (my shoes are legit).

In all seriousness, this is me. I am looking forward to getting out in October 2024 and starting my life again. I have certified in a trade and have solid plans to work and enjoy my life at the end of my sentence. As you can see, I have a sense of humor, I have a long life ahead of me, and I'd like to find someone to share in my journey and allow me to share in theirs as well. I'm tall, fit, and I can honestly say, with 100% certainty (there are few guarantees in life - this is one of them), that I will make you laugh. I look forward to hearing from you.

Quick note: Let's just get this out of the way right now. Prison food is awful, you don't need to ask. (smile)
