

Matthew Kvapil is 33 years old and incarcerated in North Carolina, USA

Congratulations! You have discovered one of life's great opportunities. You have the chance to write to an individual that loves meeting new people and currently has all the time in the world to do so.

Prison, though crowded, can still feel more lonely than you might expect. That being said, I'm searching for meaningful and lasting friendships, building bonds, and connecting with new people.

Now, to give you a glimpse into the world that is me: I enjoy reading novels (mostly fantasy because it's amazing, and Harry Potter rules). I love distant lands, be they of magic or science, that whisk you far away from the ordinary one you occupy. They're especially wonderful if you're incarcerated. It may sound wild to hear, but I also train service dogs here in prison. Before I came to prison, I already had a love for dogs, and when I got here, I was given the opportunity to learn how to train at a professional level. My days are filled with exercising on the weight pile, reading, or playing tabletop games like Pathfinder and Dungeons and Dragons. I'm a bit of a nerd, but nerd is the new cool.

As much as I'd love to go on, you'll just have to reach out to discover more of the awesomeness that is me, and I'm excited to learn about the awesomeness that is you.

Note: NC prison mail goes through TextBehind, a third-party company for inspection before we receive it, hence the Maryland address.
