

Jerrett Ward is 31 years old and incarcerated in North Carolina, USA

My name is Jet. I'm a simple, laid-back small-town country boy. I love home-cooked meals more than any restaurant, and I prefer a night under the stars around a bonfire instead of a night downtown at a bar. I believe in working hard and playing harder, cherishing family and friends, and making legal memories that people will remember you by. That's my definition of life.

I have a gorgeous daughter who will be 14 this year, and she means the world to me. Now, I'm looking for a girl to share the rest of my life with. I want a real "Ride or Die," a Bonnie and Clyde girl who will hold me down and have my back when I need her, just like I've always had hers. I've got a year or less until freedom, and I've already done 7 years for being in the wrong place at the wrong time, a situation that cost me years, but that's a conversation for another time.

I'm really hoping to find that one in a million person with whom I can spark a friendship and see what happens. I'm actually a big-hearted teddy bear with a wild side, and when I love, I love hard. But we don't have to go that far just yet. If it sounds like I'm your type and you want to talk to a good-looking, tatted-up farm thug, hit me up on TextBehind.com, electronic mail, or the GTL GettingOut App.
