

Keith Larrabee is 29 years old and incarcerated in Massachusetts, USA

Good vibes only... I am looking to find people to connect with on a mental, physical, and spiritual level. I enjoy having good conversations and hope to find people I can laugh with as well as be serious and really talk about building not only my future but their future as well. I want to find someone who will help me grow and develop my life without trying to force me to be someone I'm not, someone who will accept me for me. I know people are flawed, and I accept that because I am too. I have many dreams and aspirations that I look forward to sharing with my family and potential life partner.

To sum it up, I want to find real connections with people who don't play games because I'm 29, and I'm not a person who plays games. Just a simple person who loves to laugh and make other people laugh. Age doesn't matter. This will not be a regretful deal; I promise you this will be the best decision you made in a while. You'll cherish the times we talk. I'm a real friend, and I go for my friends. I'll be the light in the darkness, the fire that keeps you warm. I'm a free spirit. A firm believer that you only live once, so life is too short to just play games.

Ya Highness, if you're out there, stop playing and hit me up. Send me an email for a quick response or snail mail at the address below. Like I was saying, a quicker response will be through email, but I don't mind snail mail. It's free too. Determined to overcome all my obstacles and fly out and take care of a queen, my future queen.
