

Kalid Gaillard is 36 years old and incarcerated in California, USA

I'm Kalid. I'm in my early 30s, originally from the Caribbean but now residing in the United States. I'm currently in federal custody on drug charges, with 2-3 years left before my release.

Being single, I wouldn't mind becoming friends with someone, getting to know her thoroughly, and finding ways to make her life better. I want you to know me as well—learn about my strengths and weaknesses, and encourage me to be a better person.

I'm drawn to a smart, beautiful, business-savvy woman with a good and genuine heart. I plan to become an entrepreneur, so I love being around business-minded people. I enjoy having fun—going on cruises, jet skiing, bowling, kayaking, and traveling everywhere. I'm motivated and committed to doing whatever it takes to make my loved ones, including my significant other, happy because their happiness brings me joy.

I'm hoping to find someone great to get to know, build a friendship with, and, if meant to be, move forward. I hope to connect with someone who keeps positive energy flowing. You can contact me, send me pictures, and share your information if you'd like, and then I can email you. I might not be the best at writing poetry, but I'm fun and interesting to be around, with great energy. Patiently waiting for your response.
